Monsoon Photography Event
June 26 – September 15, 2023
Indian Meteorological Society – Dehradun Chapter
ing Association with Indian Institute of Remote Sensing

Rules & Regulations:

• Any member of the Indian Meteorological Society (IMS) can participate in the event

• A member has to upload maximum of 01 best photograph depicting the picturesque monsoon. The members have to register themselves on the Antariksha Jigyasa Plaform of ISRO (https://jigyasa.iirs.gov.in). You must provide the your details such as Name, email ID, Mobile No., Profession, Organisation / Institute, etc. in the online form. One you register, activate your account through your registered e-mail. Then login, go STEM-COMPONENTS Tap, select the “Sky-PICK” in the drop down and then Click “Join Now”. You may give the title to your photograph and provide the brief description.

• You have to rename your photograph entry with your name (Ex. Mr. Ravi Kumar) followed by life membership number (Ex. 1234), then the photograph name must be Ravi_Kumar_1234 which will be uploaded on the portal.

• The photographs must be clicked during June 26 – September 15, 2023. Any kind of forging may result in dis-qualification of the candidate. Please avoid human, their faces and cruelty to any animal or human for the photograph.

• Members can upload the photographs during the June 26 – September 15, 2023. Late entries will not be entertained.

• There will be prize for the three best photographs under two categories - working professional and others (family members of the IMS member) – 1st prize - ₹ 2000; 2nd prize - ₹ 1500; 3rd Prize – ₹ 1000 along with the certificate.

• The decision on the award will solely be on the discretion of the jury formed by the IMS-DC. Their decision will be last and final.

• The photographs submitted will then be property of the IMS-DC, they may use it for their activities in future.

Contact Details:

Dr. N.R. Patel, Chairman, IMS-DC - ☎ 01352524138; nrpatel@iirs.gov.in
Dr. Harish Karnatak, Head GITDL, IIRS - ☎ 01352524354; harish@iirs.gov.in
Dr. Vaibhav Garg, Secretary, IMS-DC – ☎ 0135-2524165; vaibhav@iirs.gov.in